

Please allow the Telephone Privacy Law to remain as it is. Before it came to law, my precious evening hours at home were often interrupted with as many as 10 unwanted calls per night, one after another. My caller ID would be filled with "Unavailable" numbers after only a few days. I greatly appreciate the present peace that our few "at home hours" now has because of the limited interruptions. Thank you.